

TransMedics Organ Care System (OCS™) State of the Art Heart and Lung Perfusion & Assessment Symposium - Transforming The Standard of Care

Thursday, April 20th | 11:30-12:30 PM
Colorado Convention Center, Room 401-404

Moderators

- Kenneth McCurry, MD - Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland OH
- Carmelo Milano, MD - Duke University Medical Center, Durham NC

Agenda Talks

- Impact of OCS Lung Perfusion Times on Post-Transplant Clinical Outcomes - Real-World Data from Thoracic Organ Perfusion (TOP) Registry - Gabriel Loor, MD - Baylor St. Luke's Medical Center, Houston TX
- First Annual Report from The OCS Heart Perfusion (OHP) Registry in the USA - Post-Approval Clinical Experience - Josef Stehlik, MD - University of Utah Health, Salt Lake City UT
- Standardized National Lung Procurement and OCS Perfusion Management (NOP) vs. Center Specific Process - Impact on Outcomes - Stephen Huddleston, MD - University of Minnesota, Minneapolis MN
- Update on Long-Term Clinical Outcomes from OCS DCD Heart Pivotal Trial - Amy Fiedler, MD - University of California San Francisco, San Francisco CA
- First Year Performance Review of The US National OCS Program (NOP) for Cardiothoracic Transplants - Waleed Hassanein, MD - TransMedics, Inc., Andover MA
- Panel Discussion and Q&A - Moderators